

Orlando Abrigo

BARBARESCO DOCG VIGNA MONTERSINO 2006

91
POINTS

Sweet strawberry and cherry aromas, with hints of vanilla cream. Full-bodied, with ripe, soft, round tannins and outstanding depth of fruit. Best after 2012. 800 cases made. - Wine Spectator Sep 2009

GRAPE: Nebbiolo sub-variety Lampia.

VINEYARD LOCATION: the Montersino vineyard in Treiso (300 m. asl) facing south-west, with Guyot pruning (9-10 buds/vine)

VINES/HECTARE: 4500 YIELD: 5-6 t/Ha

WINE-MAKING:

Soft pressing of the grapes, followed by maceration on the skins for 6-10 days at a maximum temperature of 30°C.

The wine is then drawn off and racked into small, new oak barrels, where it matures for 12-15 months.

After clarification, the wine is bottled without filtration.

Store lying down in cool surroundings.

TASTING NOTES:

Ruby-red, with a rich, complex bouquet hinting at vanilla and red fruit, together with sweet and spicy elements resulting from the wood. Smooth at first on the palate, the big tannins then make it slightly harder, with excellent ageing potential.
