Marina Cvetic Iskra Montepulciano d'Abruzzo Colline Teramane DOCG 2014 is 100% Montepulciano d'Abruzzo grapes from the only DOCG area in Abruzzo.

Since 2009, all production processes are done directly in the Teramo area, the wine is aged two years in oak barriques and 6 months in the bottle, and meets all the necessary requirements to allow the change from IGT Colli Aprutini to DOCG Colline Teramane.

ISKRA, the "cru" of the Marina Cvetic line, is the wine that best represents the profound union between Gianni Masciarelli and Marina Cvetic.

Gianni, always looking for new challenges and new terroirs, found in the hills of Controguerra (in the Teramo province) the most suitable place for a new genuine expression of the Montepulciano d'Abruzzo.

The idea was to highlight some unique nuances of the vine, to create a wine that could match the Villa Gemma Rosso with a totally different character but an equally impressive personality.

Its name, "spark" in the Slavic languages, was chosen by Stevo Petrovic, friend of the Masciarelli family, to mean both spark of light that emanates from the bright ruby and deep color, but also spark of the taste, intense and complex. In some ways, edgy, just like the sound of the word "iskra".
