

Scotland's Smallest Distillery

EDRADOUR

ESTABLISHED 1825

10 Year Old

“Scotland’s smallest whisky distillery, Edradour, has an incredibly limited production that makes their offerings truly rare and highly sought after”

- Globe and Mail Dec 2011

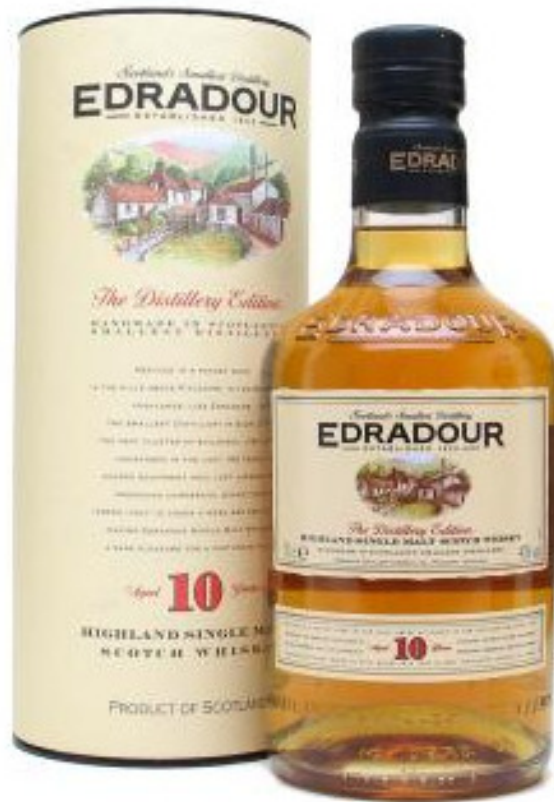

90 Points!

“Silky and round with prominent cereal notes.”

- Globe & Mail Dec 2011

“The peaty, nutty nose shows notes of caramel before opening up to liquorice and blackberry on the palate, then finishing with bread dough and sharp cheese. Natural colour.”

- Wine Spectator Feb 2011

Maturation:

Distilled in copper pot stills and matured in oak casks for a minimum of 10 years. No artificial colours added, leaving the natural colour to shine.
